

REGISTER TODAY

NCDSAlliance.org/conference

SATURDAY

NOVEMBER

16

8:30 A.M. - 4:30 P.M.

NORTHERN WAKE TECH
RALEIGH, N.C.

Join us as we learn about creative ways to help people with Down syndrome meet their full potential.

The logo for the North Carolina Down Syndrome Alliance (ncdsa) is displayed within a dark blue silhouette of the state of North Carolina. The letters 'ncdsa' are written in a white, lowercase, sans-serif font.

North Carolina Down Syndrome Alliance

2019 Conference

18 BREAKOUT SESSIONS

Choose from sessions that cover all aspects of life for people with Down syndrome. We'll also have workshops exclusively for teens and adults. Topics include:

- Language & literacy
- Future planning
- Toilet training
- Education
- Benefits

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

- Parents
- Family members
- Caregivers
- Self-advocates
- Educators

KEYNOTE SESSION

Promoting Strengths and Adaptive Resources in Persons with Down Syndrome

KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Dennis McGuire, LCSW, Ph.D.

Dr. McGuire is a Down syndrome behavioral expert with more than 30 years of experience in the fields of mental health and developmental disabilities. He is the former Director of Psychosocial Services for the Adult Down Syndrome Center of Lutheran General Hospital in suburban Chicago, the largest, most prestigious clinic for adults with Down syndrome in the United States.

FREE FOR INDIVIDUALS WITH DOWN SYNDROME