

North Carolina Down Syndrome Conference

Saturday | 22 April | Alamance Community College

Conveniently located off I-40/I-85 Exit 150 in Graham, NC

CALL FOR SPEAKER PROPOSALS

Submit a Proposal
by March 1

Conference Overview

NCDSAlliance.org/conference

Conference Includes

- Keynote address
- Breakout sessions
- Self-advocate track
- Spanish language track
- Exhibitors
- Networking opportunities
- Lunch
- Refreshments throughout the day

Audience

- Parents and caregivers of individuals with Down syndrome
- Educators
- Other service providers

Contact

Donna Beckmann

donna@ncdsalliance.org

North Carolina Down Syndrome Conference offers a wide range of topics that cover the lifespan of a person with Down syndrome. NCDSA is able to keep the cost affordable to attendees by the generosity of conference presenters donating their time and expertise. Anticipated attendance 175 participants.

Session Details

Deadline: March 1st

Timeframe of sessions: 11:00 am - 4:15 pm

Session: 75 minutes inclusive of introduction, presentation, questions, and answers

Presentation Details

Title: Make your title informative and inviting.

Description: (150 word limit. Descriptions will be edited or cut off at 150 words)

- Provide a brief description about your presentation that will inform and entice your target audience to participate in your session.
- Begin with one of the following opening statements:
 - In this session, you will learn...
 - In this session, [presenter's name] will cover the following:
- Follow your opening statement list 3 key takeaways. Each one stating something your session will address.

Speaker/Professional Bio:

- Written in third person.
- Professional headshot (must be submitted in 300dpi and less than 2 MB)
- Inform the reader of the following:
 - Your relevant professional credentials.
 - Your relevant professional or personal affiliations with someone with Down syndrome.

Hosted by

North Carolina Down Syndrome Alliance empower • connect • support